Mark Hauck is a founding member of HBJ Law specializing in business law. He is recognized as a Michigan Super Lawyer, a Best Lawyer in America and DBusiness Top Lawyer. Before HBJ Law, he practiced at a national law firm headquartered in Detroit for over thirty-one years, serving as the head of the Business Litigation Practice Group and as Assistant General Counsel. His legal career spanning nearly forty years has been dedicated to serving businesses and their owners. Mr. Hauck has the unique ability to mesh his skills as an aggressive trial attorney with his deep knowledge and experience as a practical business lawyer. As a result, he is equally comfortable in a courtroom and a board room. He is laser focused on achieving results while controlling the legal costs incurred by his clients.

EXPERIENCE

Privately Owned Business Disputes

Mr. Hauck is a recognized expert on matters arising out of privately owned businesses. He works with business owners to form new companies assisting in decisions regarding business type and structure and drafting operating agreements and shareholder or member agreements. Mr. Hauck also has a long history of handling shareholder disputes, proxy fights, business break-ups and matters involving business owners' fiduciary duties. He has helped to develop the law in Michigan governing privately owned business disputes, including contributing to provisions in the Michigan Business Corporation Act that govern such matters and as a respected contributor to the Michigan Business Law Journal. Mr. Hauck's over three decades of experience in this area of the law makes him uniquely qualified to counsel business owners concerning the diverse matters that arise in closely held corporations and limited liability companies, including professional corporations and professional limited liability companies owned by physicians, lawyers and accountants.

Breach of Contract Disputes

Mr. Hauck has handled myriad breach of contract cases, including multi-million dollar joint-venture disputes, Uniform Commercial Code (Article 2 Sales) cases, franchise terminations and claims arising out of buy/sell agreements and operating agreements. He has litigated disputes over manufacturers' rep contracts and high stakes lease disputes and real property foreclosures. His knowledge and experience in finance, accounting, business valuation, and damage analysis allows him to hit the ground running when he is retained to handle such cases.

Investor Advisor Disputes

Alternative Dispute Resolution

As a certified mediator and arbitrator, Mr. Hauck assists other attorneys in resolving business disputes outside of the courtroom. His expertise in commercial and business matters makes him especially effective either as a mediator to facilitate settlement or as an arbitrator to decide cases that cannot be settled amicably. He was a pioneer in the development of Michigan's Business Courts and participated in initiatives by the Michigan Supreme Court's Office of Dispute Resolution that made early mediation a centerpiece of these new forums. Through these efforts he has obtained a wealth of insights and experience in the effective use of alternative dispute resolution to effectively and efficiently address business disputes.
